NORWAY.

Memorial Service for the President. In common with other places, and in accordance with the proclamation of President Coolidge, South Paris observed the day of mourning and prayer on Friday, the day when the remains of President Harding were taken to their last resting place in his home town of Marion, Ohio. The day was observed by the closing of all shops, and the business places were closed all day, and through the day of mourning and prayer were observed. A public memorial service was held the afternoon of Friday at 3 o'clock, under the auspices of the American Legion, and was attended by a good number of men and women. A draped portrait of President Harding stood at one corner of the stage, and the stage was decorated with flags and bunting. The service was held at the Legion hall, and was presided over by Rev. E. W. Hayden, pastor of the Baptist church. The service was held at the Legion hall, and was presided over by Rev. E. W. Hayden, pastor of the Baptist church.

George W. Frothingham. George W. Frothingham died very suddenly at his residence in Bryant's Pond Monday evening. He had been in ill health, but after he had closed his store and gone to bed, he was found dead. He was 65 years of age, and was a native of South Paris. He was a member of the American Legion, and was a very popular man in the community. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. F. W. Frothingham, and by several children. The funeral was held at the Baptist church in Bryant's Pond, and was attended by a large number of people.

There are prayer meetings at the Baptist church each Wednesday and Sunday evening while the other churches are closed. Christians from other churches are cordially invited to come and sing. Singers are especially welcome. C. O. Turner of Camden, former principal of Paris High School, and now principal of the Camden High School, is visiting in the village for some time. He is a native of South Paris, and was a member of the American Legion. He was a very successful teacher, and was a very popular man in the community. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. C. O. Turner, and by several children.
